

Website Data Protection & International Compliance Disclaimer - GDPR

Bushtec is committed to responsible and lawful processing of personal information. Personal information is processed in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2016/679 ("GDPR").

By accessing this website and voluntarily submitting personal information, you acknowledge that you have read this disclaimer and consent to Bushtec collecting, processing, storing and using your personal information for legitimate business purposes, including communication, service delivery, administration, contractual performance, and compliance with legal obligations.

Where required under applicable data protection laws, processing is based on consent, contractual necessity, legal obligation, or legitimate business interest.

Bushtec implements appropriate technical and organisational safeguards to protect personal information against unauthorised access, loss, misuse, alteration, or disclosure.

Where personal information is transferred across borders, such transfer will occur in compliance with applicable data protection legislation and subject to appropriate safeguards.

Personal information disclosed voluntarily in publicly accessible areas of this website may become publicly available.
